Let's craft something beautiful together!

My name is Erin Darling. I'm a queer illustrator who lives in Tacoma, WA with my two kids and our fuzzy gray cat.

I used to be a homemaker when my kids' dad walked out, and I went from stay-at-home mom to single mom overnight. With a 1 year old, a 5 year old, and a hobby in watercolor, I tried to sell paintings to make ends meet.

I did! And then I did it again and again and again.

Now, 7 years later, I have sold hundreds of paintings, raised thousands for charity, illustrated a children's book and am currently writing and illustrating my own original story.

I love cherishing old things, whether those are folk tales, thrifted frames or vintage photographs.

I believe in happy endings as well as the endless possibility of new beginnings.

There is so much joy to be found in surviving against all odds, and that is what I strive to capture in my work.

I am excited to bring my heartfelt illustrations of wholesome and tender connection into your shop and into your customers' lives.

AFFECTIONATE ANIMAL SERIES

Each painting in this series is based on a vintage photograph of real people.

Queer relationships are timeless, and LGBT+ couples have existed throughout history.

Too often, people have tried to erase the stories of gay men, fix lesbian women or campaign like transgender people shouldn't exist.

This series is a visual reminder that queer love not only exists, it is something to be treasured and celebrated.

While I feature a handful of heteronormative couples, the majority of these paintings are same sex pairings.

Queer relationships aren't just about romance, they are about breaking down barriers in order to express love and connection between each other.

LGBT+ love is a model for relationships beyond queerness: the love between brothers, between neighbors, between friends.

It is important for us to see that it is ok to be affectionate to one another and to embrace each other in all sorts of ways, whether that's through acts of service, spending quality time together, or picking out a sweet notecard to send words of affirmation.

You can find the source images for all the paintings from this series on my website at <https://darlingillustrations.com/affectionate-animals>.
